

FREE
Open Galleries Event
$5 OFF ALL BOOKS

Shaun Tan's CICADA

EXHIBITION

Wednesday 21 November

4pm to 8pm | Gates open 3.30pm

With the festive season approaching, we're opening our Centre to the public.

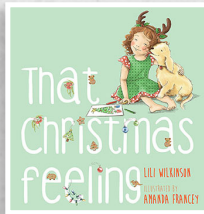

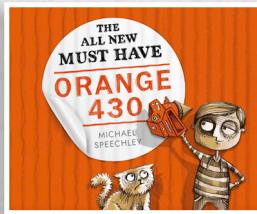

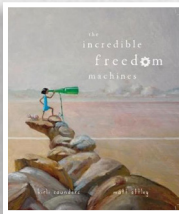

View four magnificent Australian picture book exhibitions:

Cicada – by Shaun Tan

The Incredible Freedom Machines – by Kirli Saunders and Matt Ottley

The All New Must Have Orange 430 – by Michael Speechley

That Christmas Feeling – by Lili Wilkinson and Amanda Francey

Don't miss the opportunity to view Shaun Tan's picture book Cicada – this is the first exhibition of the original artwork and creative process including a sculpture of Cicada, reference photographs and early sketches.

Books and Art for Sale

The Centre's bookshop will be open, selling Australian children's and young adult books. Here's our pre-Christmas gift to you:

SPECIAL OFFER - $5 OFF ALL BOOKS

in the Bookshop on the day - except for books marked $5!

A selection of original picture book artwork and prints, including many from Shaun Tan's and Matt Ottley's books, can also be purchased. EFTPOS facilities available.

Free Entry - All Ages are Welcome!

Browse through our galleries and bookshop. No formal sessions, and no RSVP. Simply call in to our Centre when you can between 4pm and 8pm.

The Literature Centre Old Fremantle Prison Hospital

Own Entrance Gate Corner Hampton Rd & Knutsford St, Fremantle.

Phone: 08 9430 6869 info@thelitrecentre.org.au

www.thelitrecentre.org.au

