

'Words for Water' Writing Challenge

The Literature Centre has partnered with the Water Corporation to launch 'Words for Water', an exciting writing challenge for students in the Talented Young Writers' Programme.

'It's time to change the world' is the theme for National Water Week 2019. We invite you to reflect on this theme and respond in a form of writing of your choice. All entries are to be submitted to The Literature Centre: info@thelitcentre.org.au

Your submission must be:

- your original work and no more than 300 words.
- reflective of the National Water Week theme, how we use water in our everyday lives and how we can protect it for generations to come.
- approved by a parent/guardian (see below)

Full Name:	Year Level:
School Name:
Your Email ( home or school ):

Declaration ( tick box ):	<input type="checkbox"/> My parent/guardian has given me permission to enter this writing challenge and approve writing submission to be used by Water Corporation for promotional activities.
----------------------------------	--

Your Parent/Guardian Full Name:
---------------------------------

Your Parent/Guardian ( or teacher ) Email:
---

Your Writing Entry ( 300 words or less ):
--

Submissions will be assessed on originality of writing and its impact on the reader. Deadline: 5pm, Sunday 25 August, 2019.

A shortlist of 10 finalists will be contacted by Friday 27 September. They will receive a $100 book voucher from the Centre.

Some writing by finalists may be published but this is not guaranteed.

How to submit: Save this form and email it to The Literature Centre: info@thelitcentre.org.au