You and a guest are invited to attend the 2019 Leslie Rees Fremantle Lecture Honouring our Past, Shaping our Future.

We formally announce and welcome our first Patron, The Honourable Kim Beazley AC, Governor of Western Australia.

The evening’s proceedings will include speeches by the Centre’s Founder and Director, Lesley Reece AM, The Honourable Kim Beazley AC, WA authors Mark Greenwood and Meg McKinlay, WA author/illustrator James Foley and Centre Education Officer Sacha Burbridge.

WHERE
Old Fremantle Prison Hospital
Corner Knutsford Street and Hampton Road, Fremantle.
Free parking on Hampton Road
grass via the Centre’s carpark.

RSVP
Invitation only event.
RSVP essential by Wednesday 13 November
as seating is limited.
Email info@thelitcentre.org.au or phone 08 9430 6869.

Leslie Rees AM 1905 - 2000
Leslie Rees was a beloved friend of the Centre who has left a legacy of unparalleled diversity in journalism, travel writing, drama and children’s literature. Leslie won the very first Children’s Book Council Book of the Year in 1946 with the picture book, The Story of Karrawingi the Emu, illustrated by Walter Cunningham. He was made a Member of the Order of Australia in 1981 for services to literature.