Exploring Visual Literacy

Come along and explore the wonder of The Red Tree, Home and Away, The Rabbits or The Viewer. Picture books for older readers are a great way to explore visual literacy, symbolism and context. We will work with the original artwork for these books and reveal the real stories behind these 'classic' stories.

Peeking into Picture Books

Picture books can be complex creatures! During this whole day Professional Learning we will unravel the writing and illustration process behind picture books. The focus will be on creative writing, visual literacy and the construction of picture books. At the conclusion of the day you will have so many ideas to inspire, teach and construct picture books in your classroom.

Creative Writing Workshops

Many teachers fear creative writing but it can be so much fun to teach. Together we will explore a multitude of creative writing activities that will leave you and your students inspired to write. Allow us to share with you the tips and tricks that some of Australia's best-known authors have shared with us. We promise you will leave invigorated, energised and eager to teach creative writing!

Poetry Workshops

Want to have some fun with poetry? Poetry can often seem a chore and for many, it feels inaccessible. We will have you playing with words and changing the way you think about poetry. Throughout this workshop, you will write a series of short poems and be amazed as you discover the poet within. This workshop will leave you brimming with ideas to teach poetry to your students.

The Art of Persuasion

Teenagers are the masters of persuasion. In this workshop we will examine the subtle art of persuasion and discuss tips which will assist you to tick all the right NAPLAN boxes. You will go away brimming with ideas on how to fully harness the persuasion skills the students possess and how to transfer these to the written word. This fun, hands on and insightful workshop will leave you raring to teach persuasive writing.
