SUN 15 NOV What's On

We are thrilled to invite you to The Literature Centre's 2020 Australian Storytellers Festival! Join us for a family friendly event on Sunday 15 November, in Fremantle.

Bookings are essential for all sessions. Visit Eventbrite to secure your tickets which must be shown at the gate.

Make Mine a Monster with Brenton McKenna

12:30pm - 1:15pm

There is nothing more funny, scary and creative than creating your very own monster. Whether we like them or not, every good story needs one. In this interactive workshop, Brenton runs through his creative process of how he creates his characters, particularly his good guys. He then tips that process upsidedown, breaking all the rules he just taught you to now create hideous, ugly and grotesque monsters and creatures, steeped in personality.

Painting Australia with Frané Lessac

10am - 10:45am

Join internationally renowned author/illustrator Frané Lessac on a book safari. Having published nearly 50 books, be enchanted by a world of stories in this fact-tastic, fun-packed session, guaranteed to entertain. It will combine Frané's vibrant colours, love of Australia and distinctive paintings. Children will take away their own drawing. Age 4+

ALSO Join Frané in a Fun With Stories session. From 11.30am. Age 5+

Every Stone Has A Story with Mark Greenwood

11:15am - 12pm

Have you ever held lightning... or dinosaur poop? Are meteorites magnetic? Do you know how to spot the difference between real gold and 'fool's gold'? Join Mark Greenwood, award winning author of The Book of Stone, for a hands-on exploration of nature's treasures - from mystical crystals, to prehistoric fossils, birthstones and gemstones, to space rocks from Mars and beyond. This interactive presentation explores the wonders of the natural world. It begins one stone at a time! Age 6+

Sensational Super Heroes and Super Sidekicks with Gavin Aung Than

12:30pm - 1:15pm

Everyone loves a Superhero! Learn to draw superheroes with Super Sidekicks creator Gavin Aung Than. The graphic novel cartoonist shares how he draws his super characters and teaches you to create your own amazing heroes. Get those drawing pencils ready!

Age 5+

ALSO Join Gavin in a Fun With Stories session. From 1.45pm. All Ages.

My Life In Cartoons with Brenton McKenna

10am - 10:45am

Brenton wasn't always a reader. In fact as a child he struggled with reading and writing. At the tender age of 10 everything changed when Brenton discovered comic books and now he is a master of the graphic novel and Australia's first Indigenous graphic novelist. How does Brenton McKenna draw? Come and watch Brenton play with his illustrations, listen to his stories and have a go at your own cartoon characters.
